Turin, Sept. 14. N. S.

THE 7th Inſtant, after the glorious Victory obtained by his Royal Highneſs and Prince Eugene, by which this City was delivered, after a Siege that had laſted near 4 Months, and given our Gariſon frequent Opportunities of ſignalizing their Courage and Reſolution in the brave Defence they made, their Highneſſes entred into this City, and repaired to the Cathedral, where Te Deum was ſung. The ſame Evening ſome French Troops which were poſted on the Hill of the Capucins were attacked by the Country People, who killed or took moſt of them; and we reckoned that Night 6000 Priſoners we had taken. The 8th 16 Pieces of Cannon were brought in here, which the Enemy had ſent away before the Battle from their Camp towards Suſa, but were taken by our Troops. The 9th the Prince of Carignan returned hither. The 10th the Marquis de Cortanſie was ſent to Genoa, to attend the Dutcheſſes of Savoy in their Return hither. That Day the Conde de Corſana had Audience of his Royal Highneſs, as Miniſter from the Emperor. The 11th at Night 60 Pieces of Cannon were embarked here upon the Po, to be ſent towards Cazal, in order to the Siege of that Place. The 13th Prince Eugene went from hence towards Chivas, which Place had been beſieged three Days by a Detachment of our Troops. That Day we received an Account, That the Enemy were retired from Pignerol into Dauphine; and that the Vaudois fell upon their Rear, and killed many of them. We had alſo Advice, That a Detachment of 200 Germans, with ſome Militia, had poſſeſſed themſelves of Ivrea, where they found a conſiderable Sum of Money belonging to the Enemy. A ſtrong Detachment of Horſe and Foot marched that Day to retake Aſti; and the Regiment of Maffei was ſent towards Aoſta. This Day our Duke went to the Camp before Chivas, and the greateſt part of our Army, with 40 Pieces of Cannon more, marched towards Cazal. Two thouſand Pioneers are continually employed in levelling the Enemy's Works before this Place, and in repairing our Fortifications.

Genoa, Sept. 18. The Dutcheſs and Dutcheſs Dowager of Savoy are preparing to return from hence to Turin. Three French Men of War, laden with Ammunition for the French Forces which were employed in the Siege of that Place, arrived here the 15th Inſtant; but upon the News of their Defeat, immediately ſailed back for Toulon. The Duke of Orleans is retired with the Remains of his Army to the Frontiers of Dauphine, and has quartered his Troops at Feneſtrelle and the neighbouring Towns: All his Dragoons are diſmounted, their Horſes being fallen into the Hands of the Confederates; and many of his Men are without Arms, having thrown them away in their Flight. They write from Turin, That, beſides the Cannon and Ammunition taken in the Enemy's Works, 25 Pieces of Cannon have been found in the Hill of the Capucins, and great Quantities of Powder and other Stores in the Houſes about that City, which the Enemy had fortified. The Duke of Savoy and Prince Eugene are marched from thence to attack Cazal. General Kirchbaum blockages Chivas with a Detachment of the Confederate Troops; the Governor of which Place has already beat a Parley, offering to ſurrender upon honourable Terms: But General Kirchbaum inſiſts upon the Garriſon's being Priſoners at War; to which they will in all probability ſoon be obliged to ſubmit. Two Felucca's are arrived here from the Coaſt of Catalonia, by which we have an Account of the taking of the Caſtle of Alicant by the Confederate Fleet under the Command of Sir John Leake, and the Land Forces commanded by Brigadier-General Gorges.

Venice, Sept. 24. An Expreſs arrived here the 13th Inſtant, with the good News of the Defeat of the French Army commanded by the Duke of Orleans, and the raiſing the Siege of Turin. The Troops commanded by the Prince of Heſſe having been joined by a Reinforcement from Germany, and being now 12000 ſtrong, are marching to join the Imperial Troops under the Command of General Roccavione; part of which have inveſted Modena, and the reſt Mirandola; of both which Places they hope to be Maſters in few Days: And in the mean time the Prince of Heſſe expects to receive further Orders from Prince Eugene, either to join him, or to act ſeparately, in ſuch manner as may favour his Highneſs's Deſigns. Monſieur Medavi, with the French Troops under his Command, is marched towards the Milaneſe. The Chevaliers Nicolo Erizzo and Aluiſio Piſani, Ambaſſadors Extraordinary from this State to Her Majeſty of Great Britain, are preparing for their Journey. Signior Baſtiano Nani is alſo on his departure for Rome, being appointed to ſucceed Signior Giovanni Franciſco Moroſini, in the Quality of Ambaſſador from this Republick to the Pope. The Ship St. Rock arrived here the 20th Inſtant from Conſtantinople, whence ſhe ſailed the 6th of the laſt Month: She brings an Account, That Signior Ruzzini parted from thence the 19th of July, having left the Grand Signior and his Miniſters well diſpoſed to maintain a good Correſpondence with this Republick, and to obſerve Religiouſly the Treaty of Carlowitz, as well in regard to the Venetians, as to the other Powers with whom the Porte then made Peace. The Ambaſſador was conducted on board a Turkiſh Galley to the Iſland Tenedos, whither two Venetian Men of War had been ſent to bring him home, with his Retinue; and we hear his Excellency is arrived on the Coaſts of Iſtria.

Plimouth, October 1. The 29th paſt came in here from London the Jacob Galley, bound from thence to Leghorne; and the William of Poole, homeward bound from Newfoundland. This Day came in Her Majeſty's Ships the Orford, Newport, York, Dunkirk, and Tartar, from Torbay. Six Dutch Merchant-men, bound for Bourdeaux, which had put in here, ſailed this Day for France.

Dartmouth, October 1. Her Majeſty's Fleet under the Command of Sir Cloudeſly Shovell, with the Land Forces on board commanded by the Earl Rivers, weighed Anchor this Morning in Torbay, and by One in the Afternoon every Ship was under Sail, with the Wind at North-Eaſt.

Cowes, October 2. Yeſterday Morning, the Wind coming to the North-Eaſt, all the outward bound Ships in this Harbour put to Sea.

Portſmouth, October 3. Yeſterday came to Spithead about 100 Sail of Merchant-men and Coaſters, under Convoy of Her Majeſty's Ship the Nonſuch. Her Majeſty's Ships the Charles Galley and Rye Galley ſailed this Morning from Spithead.

Yarmouth, October 4. Several laden Colliers paſſed thro' our Road Yeſterday to the Southward; from whence divers light Colliers came in here this Day.

Deale, October 5. Yeſterday came into the Downes a Dutch Man of War, with ſeveral Merchant Ships under her Convoy: Beſides which there are in the Downes two of Her Majeſty's Ships, and the Seahorſe and Union, both bound to Leghorne.

Newmarket, October 3. Her Majeſty and his Royal Highneſs arrived here laſt Night from Kenſington.

Newmarket, October 5.
